DAILY GAZETTE.

SPEECH OF HENRY WINTER DAVIS, OF MARYLAND.

[Concluded from yesterday.]

We have had enough of this false doctrine of state rights, to deceive and delude the people. State rights are nothing but national wrongs. [Cheers.] The state has not a right to say what the federal government shall do, and attempt to control its action. This intense jealousy of the national government and preference for state rights is at the foundation of the rebellion. It was fostered and spread among the people at the south by traitors. It is the people of the United States who govern; and the people of the United States are as wise as the people of New York [laughter], and the President of the United States is as honest as the Governor of New York [laughter, and then groans for Seymour], and only a few weeks ago it was proved that the United States were quite as strong as the people of New York. [Laughter and cheers.] The wretched and dilapidated thing that the government was when James Buchanan let it drop from his old woman's hands [laughter] has awaked to power and strength, and those who feared it was dead have seen it arise, shake off its grave clothes, and come back to us with as much power and vigor as it ever had. Who is most likely to invade personal liberty—those who wish to withdraw themselves from the national government and laws, or those who are trying to support them? Your states are very good in their place, but very bad out of their place, and if they came out of their places against the government, they must be put back in their places by force if necessary. And that rule applies to the north as well as to the south, whether it is applied to weak Delaware or strong New York. [Great applause.] Who is it that Gov. Seymour is going to protect the people of the United States against? Will he call out the militia of New York against the Army of the Potomac? [Laughter.] The constitution knows and recognizes only citizens of the United States, and by reason of that they are citizens of New York. [Applause.] And when sympathizers with rebels presume to be specially careful of the rights of a citizen of New York, rest assured that citizen is an enemy of the United States government, and they want to use him. It would seem these people had never read the laws—the governor of a state protecting the people of the United States!—[Laughter.] By the law, judges of state courts have no right to interfere when a man is arrested by the United States courts, and if a citizen of the United States is arrested by the United States he has a right to go before the United States court; and he didn't know that Judge Nelson was any less just than some judge elected at a ward meeting, even when "Pahdee" governs here. [Laughter.] Our fathers organized the courts to do that which Gov. Seymour seems to think he was specially raised to do, [laughter,] though he seems to think it was framed to play second fiddle to militia. [Cheers and laughter.] We did not talk about the power of government till the government was forced to put a million of men into the field. Now that power is a fact, and if not obeyed it will make itself obeyed. Now what is to be done when government comes to perform the guarantee of the constitution? Reinstate the Union as it was for pleasure of Gov. Seymour and his friends? Not with his consent! The only road to peace is by striking the sword from the hand of the rebels. [Cheers.] He wanted no peace over the putrid sore of rebellion—it must be crushed, and governments formed in the states at the south on the same basis as the states of the north. Maryland was not in rebellion, but she would wipe out slavery from her soil in less than a year. [Tremendous applause, and three cheers for "My Maryland."] It depends on the congressmen of the north, and if they will do their duty America will be a free country from Maine to Florida in less than two years. [Very loud cheering.]

Though he believed the President's proclamation to be proper and politic he did not think the practical results would be great. Slavery has existed for seventy years in the District of Columbia and it did not go out when a republican government came in, but they made a law and put it out. If we send men of the right stamp to congress who will see their duty and do it, we shall accomplish one great result. We must have a law of congress that will open the courts to the emancipated negro, and prescribe a process by which he can maintain himself against overpowering state authority or the chains of his master, and against what the states reorganized might declare to be state law. It will do no good to declare freedom and leave the negro helpless, disarmed and at the mercy of those who wield political power over him. There will never be consolidated liberty of the South until the president has not only proclaimed freedom, but has also taught the negro how to use arms and organized them. [Great cheering.] That process has already begun, though in his judgment it had begun a year too late, yet it has begun; and now let the public opinion come forward to support the president, and not only support him but urge him on. [Great applause.] And let every one who lifts a tongue to prejudice the people against the negro soldier be marked as a sympathizer with treason bent upon weakening the arm of the government. [Cheers.] Let those who think the negro not good enough to serve by the side of a white man remember that he served in the ranks of Gen. Washington and Gen. Jackson; if they think the negro is inferior to them in the field of battle let them test that by seeing who gets nearest the enemy's batteries, and then if they will say that those are not entitled to freedom who fight for it like white men, then let them come and argue the question before you. [Cheers.] The only guarantee to the negro is that at the end of the war there will be large masses of them in arms, and then it will be more difficult to reduce them to slavery than to let them remain free. [Great applause.] But what are you going to do with the negroes? "Run them up north to compete with you in labor;" "Colonize them." It has been said by one high in official place, "Exhort them to come out and fight for the country," and when they have helped free the land you will say, I suppose, that they shall have none of it. After they have shed their blood to save the country, then when it is safe, they must go out of it! I suppose, then, after the contest is ended, and the negroes have helped to gain the victory, we shall say to the white soldiers, "Enter thou into the joy of the Lord," and to the black soldiers, "Go down and dig canals for the United States, until we can get ships enough to send you abroad." [Great laughter and applause.] It is frivolous and ungenerous and humiliating, and what even the cotton lords will not appreciate—it will desolate their cotton fields. They want the negro as a slave if they can have him, but they want him any way. They cannot get along without him. The negro is at the south with us, and cannot be got rid of. And in it not better to allow them to fight our battles, and allow them to remain as a peaceable necessity which the south cannot get along without? No nation ever yet expelled another nation from its borders in such numbers as the negroes now are in this country. If this nation should be guilty of such a crime, history will record the foolishness and iniquity of sending out four millions of laborers from a country that depends upon its agriculture for its existence.

They had the question before them in Maryland, and the calm judgment of the state had decided that the negroes must not be driven out. Many of the secessionists of Maryland to day were treating the question in a practical way, and they had actually made bargains with their slaves at so much a day not to run away. [Great laughter.] Something of this kind must be done or the negro will roam abroad as a vagabond, and his master will be a vagabond too. [Cheers and laughter.] When the President issued his proclamation, justifiable by the condition of foreign affairs, it was said we should have negro insurrection and massacres of their master's families.

But where has been these scenes? The prophecy sprang from the wish of the prophet. They wanted to curse Israel and they did, but the prophecy coming from below proved false. [Cheers.] There was a great cry about the radical abolitionists, and this small fragment had been used to blacken and smut the whole north, and this deception had done much to cause the war. Now, when we are at a crisis of our fate, those who would be willing to destroy the government for the sake of their friends at the south, begin again to raise this cry to delude the people. Ill-omened owls, who cannot get the old ideas, like cobwebs, out of their heads, begin to talk about the negro; to attempt to revive the old prejudices, which the enemies of the republic alone use for mischief, and which no man can ever use for good. ["Bravo, bravo."] I say, gentlemen of the United States, that as little as I have been an abolitionist heretofore, and as little regard as I have for their common sense in great national affairs, and as little as I think they were ever calculated to do good—yet I say that the man who utters a word for the purpose of awakening a prejudice against any man who is on the side of the government in this struggle is a traitor at heart, or else so low as to be utterly unworthy of notice. [Loud cheers.] All the old arguments of Roger B. Taney and those who would preserve slavery are brought forward at this day by men in high position. Why not be reasonable, if negroes are not men, we can't make them so, and if they are men we can't help it; and if they are not our equals we can't make them so, and if they are our equals we can't help it. These questions generally settle themselves by the laws of nature and of God. [Cheers.] Those men who seek to revive these old prejudices are only seeking mischief. Let this question alone, and let the future show it; the Lord knows we have got enough in this day to attend to our own business. [Applause and laughter.] He hoped that the next congress would address itself to the real interests of the country, and realize that peace must be sought across battle fields and over a crushed rebellion; and so that in the future the Union shall not be as it was in those things in which it ought to be changed.

DAILY GAZETTE.

SPEECH OF HENRY WINTER DAVIS, OF MARYLAND.

[Concluded from yesterday.]

We have had enough of this false doctrine of state rights, to deceive and delude the people. State rights are nothing but national wrongs. [Cheers.] The state has not a right to say what the federal government shall do, and attempt to control its action. This intense jealousy of the national government and preference for state rights is at the foundation of the rebellion. It was fostered and spread among the people at the south by traitors. It is the people of the United States who govern; and the people of the United States are as wise as the people of New York [laughter], and the President of the United States is as honest as the Governor of New York [laughter, and then groans for Seymour], and only a few weeks ago it was proved that the United States were quite as strong as the people of New York. [Laughter and cheers.] The wretched and dilapidated thing that the government was when James Buchanan let it drop from his old woman's hands [laughter] has awaked to power and strength, and those who feared it was dead have seen it arise, shake off its grave clothes, and come back to us with as much power and vigor as it ever had. Who is most likely to invade personal liberty—those who wish to withdraw themselves from the national government and laws, or those who are trying to support them? Your states are very good in their place, but very bad out of their place, and if they came out of their places against the government, they must be put back in their places by force if necessary. And that rule applies to the north as well as to the south, whether it is applied to weak Delaware or strong New York. [Great applause.] Who is it that Gov. Seymour is going to protect the people of the United States against? Will he call out the militia of New York against the Army of the Potomac? [Laughter.] The constitution knows and recognizes only citizens of the United States, and by reason of that they are citizens of New York. [Applause.] And when sympathizers with rebels presume to be specially careful of the rights of a citizen of New York, rest assured that citizen is an enemy of the United States government, and they want to use him. It would seem these people had never read the laws—the governor of a state protecting the people of the United States!—[Laughter.] By the law, judges of state courts have no right to interfere when a man is arrested by the United States courts, and if a citizen of the United States is arrested by the United States he has a right to go before the United States court; and he didn't know that Judge Nelson was any less just than some judge elected at a ward meeting, even when "Pahdee" governs here. [Laughter.] Our fathers organized the courts to do that which Gov. Seymour seems to think he was specially raised to do, [laughter,] though he seems to think it was framed to play second fiddle to militia. [Cheers and laughter.] We did not talk about the power of government till the government was forced to put a million of men into the field. Now that power is a fact, and if not obeyed it will make itself obeyed. Now what is to be done when government comes to perform the guaranties of the constitution? Reinstate the Union as it was for pleasure of Gov. Seymour and his friends? Not with his consent! The only road to peace is by striking the sword from the hand of the rebels. [Cheers.] He wanted no peace over the putrid sore of rebellion—it must be crushed, and governments formed in the states at the south on the same basis as the states of the north. Maryland was not in rebellion, but she would wipe out slavery from her soil in less than a year. [Tremendous applause, and three cheers for "My Maryland."] It depends on the congressmen of the north, and if they will do their duty America will be a free country from Maine to Florida in less than two years. [Very loud cheering.]

Though he believed the President's proclamation to be proper and politic he did not think the practical results would be great. Slavery has existed for seventy years in the District of Columbia and it did not go out when a republican government came in, but they made a law and put it out. If we send men of the right stamp to congress who will see their duty and do it, we shall accomplish one great result. We must have a law of congress that will open the courts to the emancipated negro, and prescribe a process by which he can maintain himself against overpowering state authority or the chains of his master, and against what the states reorganized might declare to be state law. It will do no good to declare freedom and leave the negro helpless, disarmed and at the mercy of those who wield political power over him. There will never be consolidated liberty of the South until the president has not only proclaimed freedom, but has also taught the negro how to use arms and organized them. [Great cheering.] That process has already begun, though in his judgment it had begun a year too late, yet it has begun; and now let the public opinion come forward to support the president, and not only support him but urge him on. [Great applause.] And let every one who lifts a tongue to prejudice the people against the negro soldier be marked as a sympathizer with treason bent upon weakening the arm of the government. [Cheers.] Let those who think the negro not good enough to serve by the side of a white man remember that he served in the ranks of Gen. Washington and Gen. Jackson; if they think the negro is inferior to them in the field of battle let them test that by seeing who gets nearest the enemy's batteries, and then if they will say that those are not entitled to freedom who fight for it like white men, then let them come and argue the question before you. [Cheers.] The only guarantee to the negro is that at the end of the war there will be large masses of them in arms, and then it will be more difficult to reduce them to slavery than to let them remain free. [Great applause.] But what are you going to do with the negroes? "Run them up north to compete with you in labor;" "Colonize them." It has been said by one high in official place, "Exhort them to come out and fight for the country," and when they have helped free the land you will say, I suppose, that they shall have none of it. After they have shed their blood to save the country, then when it is safe, they must go out of it! I suppose, then, after the contest is ended, and the negroes have helped to gain the victory, we shall say to the white soldiers, "Enter thou into the joy of the Lord," and to the black soldiers, "Go down and dig canals for the United States, until we can get ships enough to send you abroad." [Great laughter and applause.] It is frivolous and ungenerous and humiliating, and what even the cotton lords will not appreciate—it will desolate their cotton fields. They want the negro as a slave if they can have him, but they want him any way. They cannot get along without him. The negro is at the south with us, and cannot be got rid of. And is it not better to allow them to fight our battles, and allow them to remain as a peaceable necessity which the south cannot get along without? No nation ever yet expelled another nation from its borders in such numbers as the negroes now are in this country. If this nation should be guilty of such a crime, history will record the foolishness and iniquity of sending out four millions of laborers from a country that depends upon its agriculture for its existence.

They had the question before them in Maryland, and the calm judgment of the state had decided that the negroes must not be driven out. Many of the secessionists of Maryland to day were treating the question in a practical way, and they had actually made bargains with their slaves at so much a day not to run away. [Great laughter.] Something of this kind must be done or the negro will roam abroad as a vagabond, and his master will be a vagabond too. [Cheers and laughter.] When the President issued his proclamation, justifiable by the condition of foreign affairs, it was said we should have negro insurrection and massacres of their master's families.

But where has been these scenes? The prophesy sprang from the wish of the prophet. They wanted to curse Israel and they did, but the prophesy coming from below proved false. [Cheers.] There was a great cry about the radical abolitionists, and this small fragment had been used to blacken and smut the whole north, and this deception had done much to cause the war. Now, when we are at a crisis of our fate, those who would be willing to destroy the government for the sake of their friends at the south, begin again to raise this cry to delude the people. Ill-omened owls, who cannot get the old ideas, like cobwebs, out of their heads, begin to talk about the negro; to attempt to revive the old prejudice, which the enemies of the republic alone use for mischief, and which no man can ever use for good. ["Bravo, bravo."] I say, gentlemen of the United States, that as little as I have been an abolitionist heretofore, and as little regard as I have for their common sense in great national affairs, and as little as I think they were ever calculated to do good—yet I say that the man who utters a word for the purpose of awakening a prejudice against any man who is on the side of the government in this struggle is a traitor at heart, or else so low as to be utterly unworthy of notice. [Loud cheers.] All the old arguments of Roger B. Taney and those who would preserve slavery are brought forward at this day by men in high position. Why not be reasonable, if negroes are not men, we can't make them so, and if they are men we can't help it; and if they are not our equals we can't make them so, and if they are our equals we can't help it. These questions generally settle themselves by the laws of nature and of God. [Cheers.] Those men who seek to revive these old prejudices are only seeking mischief. Let this question alone, and let the future show it; the Lord knows we have got enough in this day to attend to our own business. [Applause and laughter.] He hoped that the next congress would address itself to the real interests of the country, and realize that peace must be sought across battle fields and over a crushed rebellion; and so that in the future the Union shall not be as it was in those things in which it ought to be changed.

WHAT C. L. VALLANDIGHAM SAID!

"I HAVE NOT VOTED FOR ANY ARMY OR NAVY BILL, OR ANY ARMY OR NAVY APPROPRIATION, SINCE THE MEETING OF CONGRESS ON THE 4TH OF JULY, 1861.—Vallandigham, Dayton, August, 1862.

"He [Vallandigham] does not think reunion can ever be accomplished by coercion; but goes for peace, hoping that Union may result; BUT AT ANY RATE HE GOES FOR PEACE, PREFERRING EVEN SEPARATION TO SUBJUGATION OR EXTERMINATION."—Wilmington, N. C., Journal.

"I propose to * * * recognize the existence of sections as a fixed fact."

"I propose to establish FOUR instead of two grand sections of the Union."—Speech Feb. 20, 1861.

"Then, sir, I am not a southern man neither—ALTHOUGH IN THIS MOST UNHOLY AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL CRUSADE AGAINST the SOUTH, in the midst of the INVASION, ARSON, INSURRECTION AND MURDER TO WHICH SHE HAS BEEN SUBJECT, and with which she is still threatened—with the TORCH OF THE INCENDIARY AND THE DAGGER OF THE ASSASSIN SUSPENDED OVER HER—MY MOST CORDIAL SYMPATHIES ARE WHOLLY WITH HER."—Page 44, Val's Record.

WHAT H. L. PALMER SAID!

I HOPE TO SEE THE DISGRACEFUL ASSAULT UPON AMERICAN RIGHTS IN THE PERSON OF VALLANDIGHAM, CULMINATE IN HIS ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

THE WESTERN RESERVE.—The Western Reserve—sometimes called Cheesedom—promised to give Brough 25,000 majority, which was the number given to Lincoln. But it did better. It actually gave the enormous majority of 30,745. Cheesedom consists of twelve counties, and Cleveland is the chief city. It was settled by New England people, and retains the free and progressive spirit of that section of the Union.

Gen. Grant has rescinded his order restricting the charges of steamboats on the Mississippi to three-quarters of a cent a mile in the case of soldiers. The fare between Cairo and Memphis is now $6.

A commission has been ordered by Gen. Grant to examine into the ownership of property at Vicksburg—confiscate that of rebels and place loyal owners in possession of what belongs to them.

Barnum has a "five horned ram," and at a recent cattle show he labloled him "an intemperate sheep, which has taken at least three horns too much."

The Status of the Rebel States.

The Madison Patriot devotes a column and a half in answer to our remarks on the status of the rebel states after the war is ended.

We do not perceive that it has any advantage over us in the argument, except in the length of its article, and we shall not contend with it in that respect.

The Patriot supposes that it makes a great point against us by quoting Montgomery Blair's speech at Rockville, Maryland. We do not regard his opinion as of any weight. He is a mere politician, without authority in his own party, or out of it. His speech is generally condemned by republicans for its inconsistencies and its uncalled for assaults upon a large body of the party to which he owes his position, including a brother member of the cabinet, Mr. Chase.

Notwithstanding Mr. Blair's tirade against "abolitionists," he tells us in his speech that "it may be readily conceded that the rebel states are not de jure states of the Union, with all the rights of states, and that as they can take no part and perform no function in the Union, so they cannot be recognized by the general government." This is about as unlimited a concession as is needed to substantiate the doctrine we have contended for. Does the Patriot concede as much?

Again, Mr. Blair says in the same speech:

"The abolition programme shows somewhat of the motive for converting states into territories and carry them back into colonial bondage, to take law from congress without representation. The reasons assigned: 'Slavery (says the programme) is impossible within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government.' For many years I have had this conviction, and have constantly maintained it. I am glad to believe it is impossible, if not expressed in the Chicago platform. Mr. Chase, among our public men, is known to accept it sincerely. Thus slavery in the territories is unconstitutional; but, if the rebel territory falls under the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government, then slavery will be impossible there. In a legal and constitutional sense it will die at once. The air will be too pure for a slave. I cannot doubt but that this great triumph has been already won. The moment that the states fell, slavery fell also, so that without any proclamation of the president slavery had ceased to have a legal or constitutional existence in every rebel state."

As the Patriot quotes Mr. Blair's speech as authority, we presume it endorses it. Does it believe that "slavery is impossible under the exclusive jurisdiction of the general, government?" Does it believe that "when the states fell, slavery fell also?" If so we welcome it to the "abolition" fold.

The strange and unaccountable inconsistency of Mr. Blair consists in abusing the radical republicans for holding the very doctrine which he concedes to be true, and in this the Patriot is also guilty, if it endorses the speech, as it seems to do, by quoting from it approvingly.

Will the Patriot tell us how the state government of Louisiana is to be started again? Who has the legal authority to give notice of an election for governor, members of congress and a state legislature?

The Draft Postponed.

The draft in this state has been postponed until the 9th day of November.

SPEECH OF HON. HENRY WINTER DAVIS.—We conclude the publication, to-day, of the speech of Hon. Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland. It is a bold, eloquent and manly presentation of some of the living and paramount issues of the time. Coming from a distinguished statesman of a slave holding state, it will be read with peculiar interest. It will be seen that his opinions do not materially differ from the radical republican sentiment of the free states. On some points we do not quite agree with him, but there is nothing essentially different in his treatment of the slavery question and the war from the views we have taken of present political questions.

It will soon be apparent that the unconditional Union men of the slave states will be the most radical in their determination to put an immediate and final termination to slavery. This class of men see that they can never live in peace in the south if the power of the slave holders is not utterly broken. Slavery and rebellion are identical, and whoever opposed the latter in the south will be regarded as an enemy to the former. It is, therefore, of the last importance to southern Union men to kill slavery without delay, so that freedom and peace can both be inaugurated at the same time.

MADISON CITY BONDS.—The common council of Madison have resolved to pay 76½ per cent. on their municipal and cemetery bonds, and 33⅓ per cent. on the Watertown railroad bonds, if the holders of the bonds will come into the arrangement. If made, new $20 year 7 per cent. bonds for the former and 6 per cent. for the latter are to be issued, and an application is to be made to the legislature for authority to complete the negotiation.

A COPPERHEAD COMPLAINT.—The Cincinnati special correspondent of the Chicago Times says:

"Archbishop Purcell, Bishop Rosecrans, and several of the Catholic clergy have been active to-day at the polls in influencing votes for Brough and against the patriot Vallandigham."

However much copperhead politicians may complain of this action of the Catholic clergy, good men everywhere will approve it. Patriotism is never inconsistent with a religious profession.

The councils of New York city having required the butchers to remove their slaughter-houses out of the municipal limits, it is suggested that the bulls and bears of Wall street should be deported with the other stock.

☞ On Sunday last a detachment of the 2d Iowa cavalry, from Memphis, arrested at Hernando, 28 miles distant, three men who were agents of the rebel government in securing the destruction of steamboats upon the Mississippi. They will be tried before a special military commission.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, Oct. 16.

Gen. Grant and staff came to Cairo this morning, on the steamer Metropolitan. Weather delightful.

The steamer Commercial has just arrived from Memphis with dates to the evening of the 14th.

Brig. Gen. L. F. Garrard came up on the Commercial, en route for Kentucky.

The Bulletin had advices from Little Rock to the 6th inst., and extracts from Dr. Meadows' new paper—the National Democrat.

The thickly timbered country, known as Richwood, in Jefferson county, is infested by a band of guerrillas under command of W. F. Cotter. He has been a terror to the Union men, and females regarded him as a miserable viper. Everybody not armed has fled at his approach. To Major Leed, of the 8th Missouri cavalry, was assigned the duty to capture Cotter and break up his camp. Last Wednesday the Major ascertained the location of the guerrilla, and vigorously set at work to capture him. Captain Jones was sent some miles down the river to search for Cotter's camp and capture him, dead or alive. He came upon and attacked him almost before he had time to mount. The first volley from our men killed Cotter and a sergeant named Mayo. His men surrendered. A rebel mail carrier, named Cordell, with a mail, had been captured, and are in the possession of Provost Marshal General Chandler.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

Special to the Chicago Tribune.—The rumor that Lee is still seeking to turn our right wing, and that Hill, on Wednesday, was repulsed at Bristow Station, still lacks official confirmation. Our prisoners in the Bristow affair are about 701—lost some. The number of guns captured was six, of which one was abandoned. No material loss.

Some of our men were surprised, and a hundred killed before they could get to their arms.

One of Halleck's staff officers went to the front yesterday. Meade is in about the same position as yesterday. Lee's strength is estimated at from 70,000 to 90,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.

A special to the Tribune, from Chattanooga, Oct. 15, contains the following:

Since the 7th, no hostile demonstrations have been made on our front. Their batteries on the northeastern slope of Lookout Mountain have been withdrawn, and those on the left have remained silent.

Yesterday and to-day guns on the left and right compelled Bragg to remove his headquarters from Missionary Ridge, and drove away the whole signal corps on Lookout Mountain. Up to noon to-day both sides have been quiet.

Day before yesterday, a rebel picket, composed of a sergeant and six men of the 3d Kentucky, deserted to us.

Small parties of the rebel sharpshooters have fired for several days, from the south bank of the Tennessee, upon the trains and detachments of troops moving over the road along the north bank, to Bridgeport and Stevenson, and killed and wounded several men and animals. Dispositions have been made to drive them away.

The damage done to the Nashville and Stevenson railroad by Wheeler's cavalry, has been repaired, and trains are now running regularly. The rebel cavalry have been closely followed by ours on this raid, and attacked and defeated several times, it is now reported to be completely scattered throughout the region of Duck and Elk rivers.

Yesterday another strong rebel picket commanded by a lieutenant, came into our lines in a body. They report the enemy building pontoons. This indicates an intention to dislodge us from our position by a flank movement across the river, which will be provided against by Gen. Rosecrans.

There has been no communication with Burnside for several days. The public have been wrongly impressed as to the stragetic relations of his command with this army. It is serving a good purpose, but not in the manner generally supposed in the north.

Rebel papers of the 6th and 7th contain the farewell address of Gen. Polk to his command. The same papers have a report that Jeff. Davis is about moving to Georgia to take command of Bragg's army.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

The Tribune has the following:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 16.

Our lines of battle were maintained throughout yesterday and to-day, but the enemy have made no further demonstrations, and all is quiet. Rebel pickets appeared along our front, but whether after having been so completely foiled in all their endeavors to gain an advantage, they will try another flank movement or risk a general engagement, is as yet undeveloped by any discovery we have been able to make. A reconnoisance on our right has disclosed a heavy body of infantry occupying the passes of the Bull Run Mountains, while Hill's corps is believed to be still hovering on our left. A squad of mounted rebel raiders dashed in upon the headquarters of the supply train of the 6th corps, between Chantilly and Centerville, about midnight last night, but capturing the teams of only four wagons. All rumors of a fight having taken place at Fairfax Court House, or that our artillery had all retreated thither, are false.

Gen. John Cochrane reached Fairfax Court House this p. m. Between 50 and 60 more rebel prisoners were brought in to-day, and this evening we dispatched to Washington the remainder of our wounded in Tuesday's fight; also sent in all the sutlers and other attaches of the army likely to embarrass active movements. They have been ordered to Alexandria, and the Army of the Potomac is reduced to light weight to match their southern friends.

Tribune's Washington dispatch.—The President's reply to the address of the Missouri delegation was mailed to Hon. C. D. Drake, chairman of the delegation, at St. Louis, yesterday. It will be published or not at the option of that gentleman. Gen. Schofield is continued in command of the department and all military powers are concentrated in his hands. He receives new instructions, a copy of which is annexed to to the President's letter to the delegation, containing explicit and more stringent directions for the management of his department. All persons in the service of the United States are forbidden to return fugitive slaves or to assist in their escape. No soldiers are to be enlisted except under the orders of the commander of the department. Gen. Schofield's course with regard to Senator Lane and his followers is approved, and he is ordered to use all the forces under his command to put down guerrillas or other irresponsible persons carrying on irregular warfare, under whatever color or pretext. No action is taken in the matter of the enrolled militia which is left as it was before the committee presented their allegations.

Gov. Yates of Illinois, and Gov. Salomon of Wisconsin, are here. The former is desirous of removing some of the restrictions upon commerce on the Mississippi; and the latter has questions to settle with the war department.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

☞ No report at the time of going to press.

From the Richmond Examiner, Oct. 2.

Union Prisoners from Chickamauga.

On Tuesday evening, 1,775 of the prisoners taken in the battle of Chickamauga, reached the Libby via Petersburg, and 550 more on Wednesday mornin., making 2,325 in all. About 1,700 more arrived from the same direction on Wednesday night, and 3,200 of the same will follow this morning.

The Libby has been filled to overflowing, and additional prisons had to be opened. On Tuesday night, 486 were sent to Belle Isle, and yesterday morning 517 more were sent to the place; 600 were quartered in the negro quarters opposite the Castle, and 305 were incarcerated in Grant's warehouse, corner of Nineteenth and Franklin streets.

The officers, of whom there were about 250, were retained at the Libby, making the whole number of commissioned officers there about 800, which will be increased by other arrivals to near 1,000.

The following are the names and regiments of the colonels and lieutenant colonel among the officers received from Bragg:

Colonel F. A. Bratleson, 100th Illinois; Lieut. Col. Alexander Von Shrader, 14th army corps; W. E. McKim, 21st Illinois; C. H. Morton, 84th Illinois; S. F. Pyfer, 77th Pennsylvania; O. C. Johnston, 15th Wisconsin. Majors G. W. Fitzimmons, 30th Indiana; B. B. McDonald, 101st Ohio; Alexander Phillips, 77th Pennsylvania, with twenty-nine captains, sixty-two first and second lieutenants, a host of corporals, sergeants, surgeons, drummer boys, &c.

We now hold in Richmond about 7,000 prisoners of war, with some 3,000 or 4,000 to be added to the number.

The battle of Chichamauga is a pretty good offset for Gettysburg in the way of prisoners, and the boasted preponderance of the Yankees has disappeared.

The officers from the west are generally a fine looking body of men, but the rank and file look as usual, hungry and thievish.

WHY ENGLAND AVOIDS WAR WITH AMERICA.—The London correspondent of the New York Times writes:

The Emperor has been more than civil to Mr. Slidell, while Earl Russell has been much less than civil to Mr. Mason. Mr. Slidell, in France, from all accounts, is as well treated as if he were a recognized envoy. Mr. Mason, except on his first arrival, has not been able to get a private interview with Earl Russell. Shall I tell you the reasons for this difference? There are several. One is the proximity of Canada to the northern states, and the similar proximity of Mexico to the southern states. England hopes to keep the one; France has taken possession of the other. England is determined to avoid a war with America. For this the government stopped the Alexandria, and so stretched the law in doing it that the Court of Exchequer decided against it. By a similar stretch of law the government is stopping the ironclads in the Mersey. The government will do everything that can be done to avoid giving offense to America. It earnestly wishes for peace. No one can tell the terror of a war with America that has seized upon the English government and people. It has taken the bluster out of the Times. It amounts to a panic. It is ludicrous, and more than ever so, since the report of the effect of the American artillery in the siege of Charleston. It cost England $10,000,000 to bring Mason to England, and now they are only too happy to see him pack up his trunks at No. 24 Upper Seymour street, and take the train for Paris. It is the 200-pounder Parrotts that have done it. It is the fact, now evident enough, that there is not an English ship afloat, or an English fortress ashore, that can resist such artillery—and the fact, also, that the best gun the English have got is a 68-pounder.

SEVEN INDIANS KILLED.—The Polk County Press says:—"One day last week a disturbance took place among the Yellow Lake Indians, in Burnette county, some 65 miles above this point, in which two Indians were killed. The friends of the Indians which had thus lost their lives, took up the quarrel, and a general row ensued which terminated in the death of five more. The Indians all belong to the Yellow Lake band of Chippewas.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—We find the following complimentary resolution to the Wisconsin Fifth, in the Albany Journal and Courier. The gentlemanly and soldierly bearing for which they are complimented, might reasonably have been looked for from a regiment which has borne itself so gallantly on so many a hard fought battle field:

"VOTE OF THANKS TO THE MILITARY.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Albany County Agricultural Society, held in the city of Albany this 5th day of October, 1863, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the society be and they are hereby tendered to our honored guests, the officers and soldiers of the Fifth Wisconsin volunteer regiment, for their attendance and parade at the late fair held by this society, and we feel that while expressing our own, we but record the unanimous sentiment of the thousands there assembled, that for military bearing and gentlemanly deportment, the officers and privates of the Fifth Wisconsin can have no superiors; and that, in addition to their reputation as soldiers, acquired by them in the fifteen different battles in the Army of the Potomac, with armed rebels seeking to destroy the constitution of our common country, and break up the Union framed by our fathers and cemented by their blood, which they brought with them, they will carry back to their comrades in the field the respect and well merited esteem of all who have been honored with their society during their brief sojourn in this state."

A HIGH OLD TIME IN DAYTON.—A dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial dated the 14th says: Brough's majority in the county is sixty-seven. He leads the balance of the state ticket about thirty. Unofficial returns show the election of the Union county ticket, except Staley for county treasurer who is short six votes.

The people were frantic all night. From seven this morning, till noon, they roved in great droves, like wild men, through the streets, shouting for Brough, "Here's your damned abilitionists," &c. A great crowd assembled at the court house corner, and insisted upon speeches from Ollin, Gunckel, Anderson, Nolan, Boltin, Wood and everybody else. Dayton never before witnessed such wild revels. To-night, bonfires gleam at every corner, and crowds are roaring in the streets like mad men. A big meeting is now going on. The home of the exile did a great work.

The Providence Journal hits it exactly when it says of the lecture Artemus Ward delivers about "the ghosts," that it is of so airy and intangible a texture that the good ghosts might wear it as a garment without the slightest hazard to their impersonality!

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

CITY OF BEARDSTOWN, Cass Co., Ills, October 12th, 1863.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:—Perhaps a few lines giving impressions of this place and its people may be interesting to yourself and readers.

The city of Beardstown has a population of about 3500, half of foreign birth—is situated on the east bank of the Illinois river and is the seat of justice of Cass county.—The site of the town is a bed of sand which makes it impossible to haul loads of such weight as you see in the streets of Janesville. The prosperity of the town will date back to a period previous to rail roads in this state. This town has been the great landing place of merchandise for the numerous towns about, including Springfield and Decatur, fifty miles east, goods having come down the Ohio river, then up the Mississippi and Illinois rivers to this place. The large and extensive, but now decayed and dilapidated warehouses along the bank of the river, show what has once been the business of the town, which rail roads have almost entirely dispensed with.

There is no rail road leading to this place, although they have long had a charter and much of the grading done, and the only ingress or egress to the town is by flatboat or stage. There are not many good farms adjoining the city, and in high water steamboats have sailed around the city. With the exception of a few despised copperheads, its inhabitants are a noble set of people, and few towns can compare with this in its sanitary supplies.

The ladies, (God bless them) scores of them have worked three-quarters of their time the past year for the soldiers, in the winter and fore part of summer, making comforts and clothing, and since the fruit season in preparing the same for the noble soldier boys, of whom they have sent so largely. Mr. E. C. Sackett, of whom you stated in your paper some ten days since, as having donated his fruit to the sanitary department, lives a short distance from this city. I was in his orchard a few days since. He had about 200 bushels of peaches, and I believe there is from 600 to 800 bushels of the choicest varieties of apples now in his orchard. The ladies worked up all the peaches possible, and are now at work at the apples. Think what a donation to a noble cause. The peaches were worth one dollar and the apples fifty cents per bushel in this town. Besides this, Mr. Sackett spends all of his time in the sanitary department near Vicksburg, but is now home on a sick furlough, with a supply of cotton sufficient for five or six thousand comforts, to be made up for the sick soldiers. The ladies of Beardstown have taken one thousand to make, and Springfield, Decatur and Jacksonville the same number.

The country this side of Chicago was very much injured by drouth, and the untimely frost cut the remaining corn severely. They do not raise oats here, and not much wheat when compared with Rock Co. The country about here does not show the prosperity seen in Wisconsin, and the improvements are far inferior. There seems to be very much sickness, and the new graves show a much greater fatality than in Rock county.

Take it all in all, I have seen no place that I wish to exchange for Rock prairie. I shall go to St. Louis to-morrow and soon turn homeward, being in time to cast my vote for Lewis and the remainder of the Union ticket. Yours truly,

A. M. CARTER.

☞ It is reported that a rebel force of 3,000 is about to make an attempt to capture Fort Pillow. Preparations are being made to defeat any such movement.

☞ Hon John M. Botts has been arrested by the rebels and taken to Richmond.

The mingled astonishment, wrath, mortification, and despair of the copperhead journals over the recent union triumph in Ohio, are really amusing. The most concise and elegant expression that we have seen from any of them is the following:

! ! ! ! ! ——————— ! ! ! ! !

[From the Columbus (O) Crisis, 14th]

The state has gone to hell by 50,000 majority.

☞ Col. Hatch attacked Chalmers at Byhalia, Miss., on Monday last, and, after a desperate engagement, succeeded in routing him, and, at last advices, was pursuing him closely.

WHAT C. L. VALLANDIGHAM SAID!

"I HAVE NOT VOTED FOR ANY ARMY OR NAVY BILL, OR ANY ARMY OR NAVY APPROPRIATION, SINCE THE MEETING OF CONGRESS ON THE 4TH OF JULY, 1861.—Vallandigham, Dayton, August, 1862.

"He [Vallandigham] does not think reunion can ever be accomplished by coercion; but goes for peace, hoping that Union may result; BUT AT ANY RATE HE GOES FOR PEACE, PREFERRING EVEN SEPARATION TO SUBJUGATION OR EXTERMINATION."—Wilmington, N. C., Journal.

"I propose to * * * recognize the existence of sections as a fixed fact."

"I propose to establish FOUR instead of two grand sections of the Union."—Speech Feb. 20, 1861.

"Then, sir, I am not a southern man neither—ALTHOUGH IN THIS MOST UNHOLY AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL CRUSADE AGAINST the SOUTH, in the midst of the INVASION, ARSON, INSURRECTION AND MURDER TO WHICH SHE HAS BEEN SUBJECT, and with which she is still threatened—with the TORCH OF THE INCENDIARY AND THE DAGGER OF THE ASSASSIN SUSPENDED OVER HER—MY MOST CORDIAL SYMPATHIES ARE WHOLLY WITH HER."—Page 44, Val's Record.

WHAT H. L. PALMER SAID!

I HOPE TO SEE THE DISGRACEFUL ASSAULT UPON AMERICAN RIGHTS IN THE PERSON OF VALLANDIGHAM, CULMINATE IN HIS ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

THE WESTERN RESERVE.—The Western Reserve—sometimes called Cheesedom—promised to give Brough 25,000 majority, which was the number given to Lincoln. But it did better. It actually gave the enormous majority of 30,745. Cheesedom consists of twelve counties, and Cleveland is the chief city. It was settled by New England people, and retains the free and progressive spirit of that section of the Union.

Gen. Grant has rescinded his order restricting the charges of steamboats on the Mississippi to three-quarters of a cent a mile in the case of soldiers. The fare between Cairo and Memphis is now $6.

A commission has been ordered by Gen. Grant to examine into the ownership of property at Vicksburg—confiscate that of rebels and place loyal owners in possession of what belongs to them.

Barnum has a "five horned ram," and at a recent cattle show he lableled him "an intemperate sheep, which has taken at least three horns too much."

The Status of the Rebel States.

The Madison Patriot devotes a column and a half in answer to our remarks on the status of the rebel states after the war is ended.

We do not perceive that it has any advantage over us in the argument, except in the length of its article, and we shall not contend with it in that respect.

The Patriot supposes that it makes a great point against us by quoting Montgomery Blair's speech at Rockville, Maryland. We do not regard his opinion as of any weight. He is a mere politician, without authority in his own party, or out of it. His speech is generally condemned by republicans for its inconsistencies and its uncalled for assaults upon a large body of the party to which he owes his position, including a brother member of the cabinet, Mr. Chase.

Notwithstanding Mr. Blair's tirade against "abolitionists," he tells us in his speech that "it may be readily conceded that the rebel states are not de jure states of the Union, with all the rights of states, and that as they can take no part and perform no function in the Union, so they cannot be recognized by the general government." This is about as unlimited a concession as is needed to substantiate the doctrine we have contended for. Does the Patriot concede as much?

Again, Mr. Blair says in the same speech:

"The abolition programme shows somewhat of the motive for converting states into territories and carry them back into colonial bondage, to take law from congress without representation. The reasons assigned: 'Slavery (says the programme) is impossible within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government.' For many years I have had this conviction, and have constantly maintained it. I am glad to believe it is impossible, if not expressed in the Chicago platform. Mr. Chase, among our public men, is known to accept it sincerely. Thus slavery in the territories is unconstitutional; but, if the rebel territory falls under the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government, then slavery will be impossible there. In a legal and constitutional sense it will die at once. The air will be too pure for a slave. I cannot doubt but that this great triumph has been already won. The moment that the states fell, slavery fell also, so that without any proclamation of the president slavery had ceased to have a legal or constitutional existence in every rebel state."

As the Patriot quotes Mr. Blair's speech as authority, we presume it endorses it. Does it believe that "slavery is impossible under the exclusive jurisdiction of the general government?" Does it believe that "when the states fell, slavery fell also?" If so we welcome it to the "abolition" fold.

The strange and unaccountable inconsistency of Mr. Blair consists in abusing the radical republicans for holding the very doctrine which he concedes to be true, and in this the Patriot is also guilty, if it endorses the speech, as it seems to do, by quoting from it approvingly.

Will the Patriot tell us how the state government of Louisiana is to be started again? Who has the legal authority to give notice of an election for governor, members of congress and a state legislature?

The Draft Postponed.

The draft in this state has been postponed until the 9th day of November.

SPEECH OF HON. HENRY WINTER DAVIS.—We conclude the publication, to-day, of the speech of Hon. Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland. It is a bold, eloquent and manly presentation of some of the living and paramount issues of the time. Coming from a distinguished statesman of a slave holding state, it will be read with peculiar interest. It will be seen that his opinions do not materially differ from the radical republican sentiment of the free states. On some points we do not quite agree with him, but there is nothing essentially different in his treatment of the slavery question and the war from the views we have taken of present political questions.

It will soon be apparent that the unconditional Union men of the slave states will be the most radical in their determination to put an immediate and final termination to slavery. This class of men see that they can never live in peace in the south if the power of the slave holders is not utterly broken. Slavery and rebellion are identical, and whoever opposed the latter in the south will be regarded as an enemy to the former. It is, therefore, of the last importance to southern Union men to kill slavery without delay, so that freedom and peace can both be inaugurated at the same time.

MADISON CITY BONDS.—The common council of Madison have resolved to pay 76⅔ per cent. on their municipal and cemetery bonds, and 33½ per cent. on the Watertown railroad bonds, if the holders of the bonds will come into the arrangement. If made, new $20 year 7 per cent. bonds for the former and 6 per cent. for the latter are to be issued, and an application is to be made to the legislature for authority to complete the negotiation.

A COPPERHEAD COMPLAINT.—The Cincinnati special correspondent of the Chicago Times says:

"Archbishop Purcell, Bishop Rosecrans, and several of the Catholic clergy have been active to-day at the polls in influencing votes for Brough and against the patriot Vallandigham."

However much copperhead politicians may complain of this action of the Catholic clergy, good men everywhere will approve it. Patriotism is never inconsistent with a religious profession.

The councils of New York city having required the butchers to remove their slaughter-houses out of the municipal limits, it is suggested that the bulls and bears of Wall street should be deported with the other stock.

☞ On Sunday last a detachment of the 2d Iowa cavalry, from Memphis, arrested at Hernando, 28 miles distant, three men who were agents of the rebel government in securing the destruction of steamboats upon the Mississippi. They will be tried before a special military commission.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, Oct. 16.

Gen. Grant and staff came to Cairo this morning, on the steamer Metropolitan. Weather delightful.

The steamer Commercial has just arrived from Memphis with dates to the evening of the 14th.

Brig. Gen. L. F. Garrard came up on the Commercial, en route for Kentucky.

The Bulletin had advices from Little Rock to the 6th inst., and extracts from Dr. Meadows' new paper—the National Democrat.

The thickly timbered country, known as Richwood, in Jefferson county, is infested by a band of guerrillas under command of W. F. Cotter. He has been a terror to the Union men, and females regarded him as a miserable viper. Everybody not armed has fled at his approach. To Major Leed, of the 8th Missouri cavalry, was assigned the duty to capture Cotter and break up his camp. Last Wednesday the Major ascertained the location of the guerrilla, and vigorously set at work to capture him. Captain Jones was sent some miles down the river to search for Cotter's camp and capture him, dead or alive. He came upon and attacked him almost before he had time to mount. The first volley from our men killed Cotter and a sergeant named Mayo. His men surrendered. A rebel mail carrier, named Cordell, with a mail, had been captured, and are in the possession of Provost Marshal General Chandler.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

Special to the Chicago Tribune.—The rumor that Lee is still seeking to turn our right wing, and that Hill, on Wednesday, was repulsed at Bristow Station, still lacks official confirmation. Our prisoners in the Bristow affair are about 701—lost some. The number of guns captured was six, of which one was abandoned. No material loss.

Some of our men were surprised, and a hundred killed before they could get to their arms.

One of Halleck's staff officers went to the front yesterday. Meade is in about the same position as yesterday. Lee's strength is estimated at from 70,000 to 90,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.

A special to the Tribune, from Chattanooga, Oct. 15, contains the following:

Since the 7th, no hostile demonstrations have been made on our front. Their batteries on the northeastern slope of Lookout Mountain have been withdrawn, and those on the left have remained silent.

Yesterday and to-day guns on the left and right compelled Bragg to remove his headquarters from Missionary Ridge, and drove away the whole signal corps on Lookout Mountain. Up to noon to-day both sides have been quiet.

Day before yesterday, a rebel picket, composed of a sergeant and six men of the 3d Kentucky, deserted to us.

Small parties of the rebel sharpshooters have fired for several days, from the south bank of the Tennessee, upon the trains and detachments of troops moving over the road along the north bank, to Bridgeport and Stevenson, and killed and wounded several men and animals. Dispositions have been made to drive them away.

The damage done to the Nashville and Stevenson railroad by Wheeler's cavalry, has been repaired, and trains are now running regularly. The rebel cavalry have been closely followed by ours on this raid, and attacked and defeated several times, it is now reported to be completely scattered throughout the region of Duck and Elk rivers.

Yesterday another strong rebel picket commanded by a lieutenant, came into our lines in a body. They report the enemy building pontoons. This indicates an intention to dislodge us from our position by a flank movement across the river, which will be provided against by Gen. Rosecrans.

There has been no communication with Burnside for several days. The public have been wrongly impressed as to the stragetic relations of his command with this army. It is serving a good purpose, but not in the manner generally supposed in the north.

Rebel papers of the 6th and 7th contain the farewell address of Gen. Polk to his command. The same papers have a report that Jeff. Davis is about moving to Georgia to take command of Bragg's army.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

The Tribune has the following:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 16.

Our lines of battle were maintained throughout yesterday and to-day, but the enemy have made no further demonstrations, and all is quiet. Rebel pickets appeared along our front, but whether after having been so completely foiled in all their endeavors to gain an advantage, they will try another flank movement or risk a general engagement, is as yet undeveloped by any discovery we have been able to make. A reconnoisance on our right has disclosed a heavy body of infantry occupying the passes of the Bull Run Mountains, while Hill's corps is believed to be still hovering on our left. A squad of mounted rebel raiders dashed in upon the headquarters of the supply train of the 6th corps, between Chantilly and Centerville, about midnight last night, but capturing the teams of only four wagons. All rumors of a fight having taken place at Fairfax Court House, or that our artillery had all retreated thither, are false.

Gen. John Cochrane reached Fairfax Court House this p. m. Between 50 and 60 more rebel prisoners were brought in to-day, and this evening we dispatched to Washington the remainder of our wounded in Tuesday's fight; also sent in all the sutlers and other attaches of the army likely to embarrass active movements. They have been ordered to Alexandria, and the Army of the Potomac is reduced to light weight to match their southern friends.

Tribune's Washington dispatch.—The President's reply to the address of the Missouri delegation was mailed to Hon. C. D. Drake, chairman of the delegation, at St. Louis, yesterday. It will be published or not at the option of that gentleman. Gen. Schofield is continued in command of the department and all military powers are concentrated in his hands. He receives new instructions, a copy of which is annexed to the President's letter to the delegation, containing explicit and more stringent directions for the management of his department. All persons in the service of the United States are forbidden to return fugitive slaves or to assist in their escape. No soldiers are to be enlisted except under the orders of the commander of the department. Gen. Schofield's course with regard to Senator Lane and his followers is approved, and he is ordered to use all the forces under his command to put down guerrillas or other irresponsible persons carrying on irregular warfare, under whatever color or pretext. No action is taken in the matter of the enrolled militia which is left as it was before the committee presented their allegations.

Gov. Yates of Illinois, and Gov. Salomon of Wisconsin, are here. The former is desirous of removing some of the restrictions upon commerce on the Mississippi; and the latter has questions to settle with the war department.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

☞ No report at the time of going to press.

From the Richmond Examiner, Oct. 2.

Union Prisoners from Chickamauga.

On Tuesday evening, 1,775 of the prisoners taken in the battle of Chickamauga, reached the Libby via Petersburg, and 550 more on Wednesday mornin;, making 2,325 in all. About 1,700 more arrived from the same direction on Wednesday night, and 3,200 of the same will follow this morning.

The Libby has been filled to overflowing, and additional prisons had to be opened. On Tuesday night, 486 were sent to Belle Isle, and yesterday morning 517 more were sent to the place; 600 were quartered in the negro quarters opposite the Castle, and 305 were incarcerated in Grant's warehouse, corner of Nineteenth and Franklin streets.

The officers, of whom there were about 250, were retained at the Libby, making the whole number of commissioned officers there about 800, which will be increased by other arrivals to near 1,000.

The following are the names and regiments of the colonels and lieutenant colonel among the officers received from Bragg:

Colonel F. A. Bratleson, 100th Illinois; Lieut. Col. Alexander Von Shrader, 14th army corps; W. E. McKim, 21st Illinois; C. H. Morton, 84th Illinois; S. F. Pyfer, 77th Pennsylvania; O. C. Johnston, 15th Wisconsin. Majors G. W. Fitzimmons, 30th Indiana; B. B. McDonald, 101st Ohio; Alexander Phillips, 77th Pennsylvania, with twenty-nine captains, sixty-two first and second lieutenants, a host of corporals, sergeants, surgeons, drummer boys, &c.

We now hold in Richmond about 7,000 prisoners of war, with some 3,000 or 4,000 to be added to the number.

The battle of Chichamauga is a pretty good offset for Gettysburg in the way of prisoners, and the boasted preponderance of the Yankees has disappeared.

The officers from the west are generally a fine looking body of men, but the rank and file look as usual, hungry and thievish.

WHY ENGLAND AVOIDS WAR WITH AMERICA.—The London correspondent of the New York Times writes:

The Emperor has been more than civil to Mr. Slidell, while Earl Russell has been much less than civil to Mr. Mason. Mr. Slidell, in France, from all accounts, is as well treated as if he were a recognized envoy. Mr. Mason, except on his first arrival, has not been able to get a private interview with Earl Russell. Shall I tell you the reasons for this difference? There are several. One is the proximity of Canada to the northern states, and the similar proximity of Mexico to the southern states. England hopes to keep the one; France has taken possession of the other. England is determined to avoid a war with America. For this the government stopped the Alexandria, and so stretched the law in doing it that the Court of Exchequer decided against it. By a similar stretch of law the government is stopping the iron-clads in the Mersey. The government will do everything that can be done to avoid giving offense to America. It earnestly wishes for peace. No one can tell the terror of a war with America that has seized upon the English government and people. It has taken the bluster out of the Times. It amounts to a panic. It is ludicrous, and more than ever so, since the report of the effect of the American artillery in the siege of Charleston. It cost England_$10,000,000 to bring Mason to England, and now they are only too happy to see him pack up his trunks at No. 24 Upper Seymour street, and take the train for Paris. It is the 200-pounder Parrotts that have done it. It is the fact, now evident enough, that there is not an English ship afloat, or an English fortress ashore, that can resist such artillery—and the fact, also, that the best gun the English have got is a 68-pounder.

SEVEN INDIANS KILLED.—The Polk County Press says:—"One day last week a disturbance took place among the Yellow Lake Indians, in Burnette county, some 65 miles above this point, in which two Indians were killed. The friends of the Indians which had thus lost their lives, took up the quarrel, and a general row ensued which terminated in the death of five more. The Indians all belong to the Yellow Lake band of Chippewas.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—We find the following complimentary resolution to the Wisconsin Fifth, in the Albany Journal and Courier. The gentlemanly and soldierly bearing for which they are complimented, might reasonably have been looked for from a regiment which has borne itself so gallantly on so many a hard fought battle field:

"VOTE OF THANKS TO THE MILITARY.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Albany County Agricultural Society, held in the city of Albany this 5th day of October, 1863, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the society be and they are hereby tendered to our honored guests, the officers and soldiers of the Fifth Wisconsin volunteer regiment, for their attendance and parade at the late fair held by this society, and we feel that while expressing our own, we but record the unanimous sentiment of the thousands there assembled, that for military bearing and gentlemanly deportment, the officers and privates of the Fifth Wisconsin can have no superiors; and that, in addition to their reputation as soldiers, acquired by them in the fifteen different battles in the Army of the Potomac, with armed rebels seeking to destroy the constitution of our common country, and break up the Union framed by our fathers and cemented by their blood, which they brought with them, they will carry back to their comrades in the field the respect and well merited esteem of all who have been honored with their society during their brief sojourn in this state."

A HIGH OLD TIME IN DAYTON.—A dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial dated the 14th says: Brough's majority in the county is sixty-seven. He leads the balance of the state ticket about thirty. Unofficial returns show the election of the Union county ticket, except Staley for county treasurer who is short six votes.

The people were frantic all night. From seven this morning, till noon, they roved in great droves, like wild men, through the streets, shouting for Brough, "Here's your damned abilitionists," &c. A great crowd assembled at the court house corner, and insisted upon speeches from Oilin, Gunckel, Anderson, Nolan, Boltin, Wood and everybody else. Dayton never before witnessed such wild revels. To-night, bonfires gleam at every corner, and crowds are roaring in the streets like mad men. A big meeting is now going on. The home of the exile did a great work.

The Providence Journal hits it exactly when it says of the lecture Artemus Ward delivers about "the ghosts," that it is of so airy and intangible a texture that the good ghosts might wear it as a garment without the slightest hazard to their personality!

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

CITY OF BEARDSTOWN, Cass Co., Ills., October 12th, 1863.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:—Perhaps a few lines giving impressions of this place and its people may be interesting to yourself and readers.

The city of Beardstown has a population of about 3500, half of foreign birth—is situated on the east bank of the Illinois river and is the seat of justice of Cass county.—The site of the town is a bed of sand which makes it impossible to haul loads of such weight as you see in the streets of Janesville. The prosperity of the town will date back to a period previous to rail roads in this state. This town has been the great landing place of merchandise for the numerous towns about, including Springfield and Decatur, fifty miles east, goods having come down the Ohio river, then up the Mississippi and Illinois rivers to this place. The large and extensive, but now decayed and dilapidated warehouses along the bank of the river, show what has once been the business of the town, which rail roads have almost entirely dispensed with.

There is no rail road leading to this place, although they have long had a charter and much of the grading done, and the only ingress or egress to the town is by flatboat or stage. There are not many good farms adjoining the city, and in high water steamboats have sailed around the city. With the exception of a few despised copperheads, its inhabitants are a noble set of people, and few towns can compare with this in its sanitary supplies.

The ladies, (God bless them) scores of them have worked three-quarters of their time the past year for the soldiers, in the winter and fore part of summer, making comforts and clothing, and since the fruit season in preparing the same for the noble soldier boys, of whom they have sent so largely. Mr. E. C. Sackett, of whom you stated in your paper some ten days since, as having donated his fruit to the sanitary department, lives a short distance from this city. I was in his orchard a few days since. He had about 200 bushels of peaches, and I believe there is from 600 to 800 bushels of the choicest varieties of apples now in his orchard. The ladies worked up all the peaches possible, and are now at work at the apples. Think what a donation to a noble cause. The peaches were worth one dollar and the apples fifty cents per bushel in this town. Besides this, Mr. Sackett spends all of his time in the sanitary department near Vicksburg, but is now home on a sick furlough, with a supply of cotton sufficient for five or six thousand comforts, to be made up for the sick soldiers. The ladies of Beardstown have taken one thousand to make, and Springfield, Decatur and Jacksonville the same number.

The country this side of Chicago was very much injured by drouth, and the untimely frost cut the remaining corn severely. They do not raise oats here, and not much wheat when compared with Rock Co. The country about here does not show the prosperity seen in Wisconsin, and the improvements are far inferior. There seems to be very much sickness, and the new graves show a much greater fatality than in Rock county.

Take it all in all, I have seen no place that I wish to exchange for Rock prairie. I shall go to St. Louis to-morrow and soon turn homeward, being in time to cast my vote for Lewis and the remainder of the Union ticket. Yours truly,

A. M. CARTER.

☞ It is reported that a rebel force of 3,000 is about to make an attempt to capture Fort Pillow. Preparations are being made to defeat any such movement.

☞ Hon John M. Botts has been arrested by the rebels and taken to Richmond.

The mingled astonishment, wrath, mortification, and despair of the copperhead journals over the recent union triumph in Ohio, are really amusing. The most concise and elegant expression that we have seen from any of them is the following:

!!!!! ——————— !!!!!

[From the Columbus (O.) Crisis, 14th.]

The state has gone to hell by 50,000 majority.

☞ Col. Hatch attacked Chalmers at Byhalia, Miss., on Monday last, and, after a desperate engagement, succeeded in routing him, and, at last advices, was pursuing him closely.

INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor.—Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. Barnes & Co. 202 Broadway New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From the Thirteenth Regiment.

STEVENSON, Ala., Oct. 7, '63.

Messrs. Editors:—On the 20th ultimo Col. Wm. P. Lyon was assigned to the post, and entered immediately upon the discharge of his duty. Our camp at the was one and a half miles distant from the place, but on the following day we pulled up and removed into the place for the purpose of doing garrison duty. Capt. Woodman was appointed provost marshal, and Lieut. Balis assistant. Capt. Norcross was appointed chief of the guards, but subsequently gave way to Capt. Kingman.

It seems that we are in the very midst of contention. The enemy are all around us, and are trying desperately to intercept communications between this and Nashville. But with the energies of Maj. Gens. Hooker and Butterfield, with their commands, composed of the 2d, 11th and 12th army corps, which have recently been passing over the N. & C. R. R., we think that Rosey will be able to whip the whole confederacy, and keep his line of communication open besides. Frequent dashes are made upon his supply trains by the enemy, with the intention to do no more than plunder and destroy. To dislodge Rosecrans from his present position at Chattanooga is thought impossible, and the enemy is practicing strategy of a different character.

It is thought quite probable that we will remove to the front soon.

A heavy frost occurred on the 20th ult., which destroyed nearly all of the tobacco in the vicinity. Since then the weather has been various, heavy rains and cold nights. O. A. C.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The hour of evening service in Trinity Church, Sundays and Fridays, has been changed to 7 o'clock.

REMOVED.—Dr. R. Head, surgeon of the board of enrollment for this congressional district, has just removed from Albion and taken up his residence among us. In his official capacitiy no more skillful or upright than Dr. H. could have been selected, and as a citizen he will be a vauable acquision to our city.

CHANGE OF HOUR.—Religious services in the Baptist church will commence hereafter, until further notice, at 7 o'clock in the evening. We presume, though we have not been notified of the fact, the change will be general throughout the city.

BUSINESS WANTED.—A young man, with a cash capital of from $1000 to $2000, wants to engage in business. A partnership in a business already established would be preferred. Inquire at this office. oct17d3d.

☞ The Missouri Democrat publishes extracts from a private letter by General Blunt, respecting the recent affair at Baxter's Springs. In it we have the following compliment to a Wisconsin man:

Lieut. Pond, of the 3d Wisconsin cavalry, and also his command, are entitled to great credit for the manner in which they repulsed the enemy and defended the post. The colored soldiers fought with great gallantry. All of the wounded were shot through the head, and thus murdered.

Your hair dressing is superior to all others. For eruptions it has no equal."

In endless variety, amongst which will be found the Eugenia, Alboni, and Victoria striped, Scotch Plaids, Watervliet, Middlesex, square and long Wool shawls, single and double Broche shawls, in every variety.—These goods have advanced materially in price within the past two months, but having made purchases in Europe prior to the advance, enables us to sell with fair profit this class of goods much less than the prices of New York this day. Our Stock of Domestics

In Millinery Goods at Wholesale or Retail, we cannot be undersold.

CLOTHING FOR THE MILLION!

In our Clothing Department will be found decidedly the largest stock in this city, of Men's and Boys' Clothing, principally of our own manufacture, and from the largest and best clothing houses in New York city; also, a splendid line of French and English cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, and all the superior makes of Harris and other noted manufacturers, which we sell by the piece or yard, or manufacture to order in the very best style. Garments cut to order in the most fashionable style, and trimmed at the very lowest figures. Call and examine our stock, which is one of the largest in the state.

In conclusion, we would say, that we never had a more splendid stock of goods than we have at present. It was purchased in Europe, personally, for net cash, and in invoice from importers and manufacturers, and will be sold by us at a small advance on cost. The old motto of "Large Sales and Small Profits," was many years ago adopted by us to our advantage; and this year, more than ever, we are bound to "go for it."

SPECIFICATIONS

For grading Madison street from Ravine street to Milwaukee street, in the First Ward, city of Janesville.

THE center and outer lines of said street shall be graded so as to correspond throughout their entire lengths to the established grade of said street as shown on profile on file in the office of the city clerk.

Where the aforesaid grade will allow, material taken from gutters is to be deposited in the center of street and outside of gutters; but in no case is this to be done, when, by so doing, the elevation of these portions of the street would be rendered higher than the grade aforementioned.

Depth of gutters to be uniformly fifteen inches—Surface of street to crown evenly from center line to bottom of gutters, and said crowning to be uniform throughout the entire length of street. The line of the bottom of each gutter to be at all points of the uniform distance of twenty-two feet from the aforesaid center line.

All grading to be done to the satisfaction of the aldermen of the first ward, or such person or persons as the Common Council may appoint to superintend it.

Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that at the regular meeting of the Common Council of the city of Janesville, to be held on the twenty-third day of October, 1863, the said council will proceed to act in relation to the work mentioned in the foregoing specifications; and that until that day sealed proposals for the performance of said work will be received by the city clerk. G. H. WILLISTON, City Clerk.

HATHAWAY & HAMMOND.

Carriage Mak'rs

(Successors to L. T. HATHAWAY)

Jackson St. opposite Presbyterian Church.

WE are now conducting one of the best Carriage manufactories in the West. The personal attention and labor of the partners are directed to the most important branches of the work—Mr. Hathaway superintending and working at the wood work, and Mr. Hammond having charge of the trimming. We feel satisfied that we can turn out from our shop as can be had from Chicago, or any of the eastern cities from which work is now ordered.

We use only the very best quality of second growth eastern timber, oil tempered springs, and case hardened axles, and employ none but the best workmen in any department of our business.

We have now on hand of our own manufacture—light Covered Carriages, extension tops, for one or two horses; light two-seated open Buggies, Top Buggies, single open Buggies, &c.

We would call especial attention to our light single Park Phaetons, Coal Box Buggies, and many others, too numerous to mention, all of which we will sell for the next sixty days for a very small profit, and less than the same can be bought for in the state. All our work warranted.

Repairing

Done on short notice and on the most reasonable terms.

Rock County Lawrence Fund.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 12th, 1863.

Mr. J. M. Burgess, Chairman Lawrence Aid Committee, Rock County, Wisconsin:—

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 5th inst., enclosing draft for $200, is at hand. With many thanks, I am very truly yours,

P. D. RIDENOUR,
Ch'n Law. Aid Com.

P. S.—With the funds we have, and are likely to get, the suffering will be made tolerably comfortable this winter. The business men still have a good credit in the east, and they are in good spirits, and it is astonishing how our little city is being rebuilt. Yours, P. D. R.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

STEVENSON, Ala., Oct. 7, '63.

Messrs. Editors:—On the 20th ultimo Col. Wm. P. Lyon was assigned to the post, and entered immediately upon the discharge of his duty. Our camp at the was one and a half miles distant from the place, but on the following day we pulled up and removed into the place for the purpose of doing garrison duty. Capt. Woodman was appointed provost marshal, and Lieut. Balis assistant. Capt. Norcross was appointed chief of the guards, but subsequently gave way to Capt. Kingman.

It seems that we are in the very midst of contention. The enemy are all around us, and are trying desperately to intercept communications between this and Nashville. But with the energies of Maj. Gens. Hooker and Butterfield, with their commands, composed of the 2d, 11th and 12th army corps, which have recently been passing over the N. & C. R. R., we think that Rosey will be able to whip the whole confederacy, and keep his line of communication open besides. Frequent dashes are made upon his supply trains by the enemy, with the intention to do no more than plunder and destroy. To dislodge Rosecrans from his present position at Chattanooga is thought impossible, and the enemy is practicing strategy of a different character.

It is thought quite probable that we will remove to the front soon.

A heavy frost occurred on the 20th ult., which destroyed nearly all of the tobacco in the vicinity. Since then the weather has been various, heavy rains and cold nights. O. A. C.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The hour of evening service in Trinity Church, Sundays and Fridays, has been changed to 7 o'clock.

REMOVED.—Dr. R. Head, surgeon of the board of enrollment for this congressional district, has just removed from Albion and taken up his residence among us. In his official capacitiy no more skillful or upright than Dr. H. could have been selected, and as a citizen he will be a vauable acquision to our city.

LAWRENCE RELIEF FUND.—Received of C. C. Mason eleven dollars, collected by him in joint school district No. 1 of Magnolia and Center, for the Lawrence sufferers—three dollars in Magnolia and eight in Center. J. M. BURGESS,

CHANGE OF HOUR.—Religious services in the Baptist church will commence hereafter, until further notice, at 7 o'clock in the evening. We presume, though we have not been notified of the fact, the change will be general throughout the city.

BUSINESS WANTED.—A young man, with a cash capital of from $1000 to $2000, wants to engage in business. A partnership in a business already established would be preferred. Inquire at this office. oct17d3d.

☞ The Missouri Democrat publishes extracts from a private letter by General Blunt, respecting the recent affair at Baxter's Springs. In it we have the following compliment to a Wisconsin man:

Lieut. Poud, of the 3d Wisconsin cavalry, and also his command. are entitled to great credit for the manner in which they repulsed the enemy and defended the post. The colored soldiers fought with great gallantry. All of the wounded were shot through the head, and thus murdered.

In endless variety, amongst which will be found the Eugenia, Alboni, and Victoria striped, Scotch Plaids, Watervleit, Middlesex, square and long Wool shawls, single and double Broche shawls, in every variety.—These goods have advanced materially in price within the past two months, but having made purchases in Europe prior to the advance, enables us to sell with fair profit this class of goods much less than the prices of New York this day. For instance, we sell, as usual, a good silk and wool square Broche shawl at $5,00, and the balance at proportionate prices.

BALMORAL SKIRTS!

3000 just Imported by us,

Our Stock of Domestics

Is still large and varied, having on hand many bales and cases of goods purchased by us before the great advance, and which we are selling this day less than New York wholesale prices 300 pieces Prints suitable for bed comforters, at 12½ cents per yard.

A large stock of

LADIES' FURS,

At Less than Manufacturer's Prices!

BOOTS AND SHOES!

Ladies' Rubbers for 75 cents; best quality do for $1,00.

OUR STOCK OF MILLINERY

Is now complete, consisting of everything new and desirable in that line. Our Wholesale Department contains a select assortment of Ribbons, Silks, Velvets, Flowers, Ruches, Plumes, Feathers, Bonnets, Hats, Trimmings, etc., which we guarantee to sell to Milliners as cheap as any house in the trade. In Millinery Goods at Wholesale or Retail, we cannot be undersold.

CLOTHING FOR THE MILLION!

In our Clothing Department will be found decidedly the largest stock in this city, of Men's and Boys' Clothing, principally of our own manufacture, and from the largest and best clothing houses in New York city; also, a splendid line of French and English cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, and all the superior makes of Harris and other noted manufacturers, which we sell by the piece or yard, or manufacture to order in the very best style. We guarantee to sell to the trade, in small quantities, as low as any house in the Union.

Garments cut to order in the most fashionable style, and trimmed at the very lowest figures. Call and examine our stock, which is one of the largest in the state.

In conclusion, we would say, that we never had a more splendid stock of goods than we have at present. It was purchased in Europe, personally, for net cash, and in invoice from importers and manufacturers, and will be sold by us at a small advance on cost. The old motto of "Large Sales and Small Profits," was many years ago adopted by us, to our advantage; and this year, more than ever, we are bound to "go for it."

Very respectfully, McKEY & BRO.
